

Brian Kirwan

Chief Executive Officer UK, Allianz

Brian Kirwan was appointed as Chief Executive Officer UK in October 2016. He is also responsible for Key Account management and broker distribution for UK & Ireland, Middle East and Australia.

His core focus is to develop a proactive cross sell culture within AGCS through market segmentation and One Allianz. He has developed a more active and focused engagement with core brokers using sales-force technology to target business and core decision makers. One current area of interest is making AGCS more effective in dealing with the increasing move towards facilities and panels within the brokering community.

Previously, Brian was the President of Allianz Risk Transfer (ART) where he was responsible for the insurance Linked Markets Business of ART and a member of ART's Underwriting Committee and the ART Group Management Team.

Brian has over 21 years underwriting experience in the international Alternative Risk Transfer market. He underwrote for 11 years at Centre Solutions in London, Australia, Bermuda and New York in the Alternative Risk Transfer and Alternative Asset businesses.

Brian is an MBS (Finance) from the Smurfit Business School in Ireland, a Bachelor of Commerce and a Chartered Professional Casualty Underwriter
